Superyacht Tenders and Toys teams up with 212 Yachts to offer a fully managed tender charter service

Superyacht Tenders and Toys has teamed up with 212 Yachts to provide a stress-free tender charter service. Being able to offer this new service enhances Superyacht Tenders and Toys own fully comprehensive service range. The company has earned a reputation for first class service and is the go-to place for all tender needs. Charter tenders are often needed at short notice when a client's usual tender lets them down and sourcing a replacement can be a headache, this new service will aim to eliminate that, making tender charter stress-free.

212 Yachts, located in the heart of the superyacht action, is the Côte d'Azur's premier provider of luxury and pristine superyacht tenders for hire. The company has a clear message: To provide every client with 'an extra degree of effort', meaning clients receive a service beyond what is expected.

The synergy between the two companies is unmistakable. "We are thrilled to be working closely with 212 Yachts", says Josh Richardson, Director of Superyacht Tenders and Toys, "Their approach to business and service are, on all counts, in harmony with our company ethos. They have an impressive ability and willingness to deal with last minute enquiries, always finding the perfect solution for any client request."

212 Yachts has an exclusive, well-managed fleet and knows its boats in detail. The collection boasts a classic portfolio of premium superyacht tenders, which includes the classic Van Dutch 40 and 55. Popular during high profile events such as the Cannes Film Festival or Monaco Grand Prix, they can be chartered for a few days or weeks and are sought after by corporate and private clients alike.

Jenny Caird, founder and CEO of 212 Yachts explains, “The alliance between our two companies is invaluable. 212 Yachts is built on a network of relationships I have personally nurtured and we have a wealth of contacts I can call upon to find the perfect solution to any client request. We are delighted to be working together with Josh and his team”.
